SEPTEMBER 2007 NEW BUSINESS AND REWRITES *** Important Update ***

We had previously reported to you that we were holding September 2007 rewrites pending the approval of a rate filing. In addition, the Quick Quote function and eApp have been blocked from handling business effective September 1, 2007, or later.

It appears that the effective date of the rate filing and associated changes will be after September 1st. For that reason, we are printing the September rewrite notices with the current rates and current underwriting guidelines. The web site will now handle September business.

As additional information on the rate filing becomes available, we will make it available to you.
